About us

We have a small-scale organic farm we are two friends working together with some help of our families. we do a lot of permaculture we don't use chemicals and we love our work in our land. We are also host at wwoof and workaway. We can give all of our knowledge, why not accommodation and food and a lot of walks in our area so they can visit our region.

What we expect from trainee

We expect some help with the activities we do in our farm. We are open to ask us with all questions they need to learn about sustainability.
